

IFA Certified Account Executive in Factoring Exam

The International Factoring Association (IFA) is accepting applications for candidates who wish to register to take the CAEF exam. Successful candidates will earn the CAEF designation by receiving a passing grade on the exam. This prestigious certification provides proof that an individual has met the benchmark skilled and knowledge to operate effectively in the Factoring and Receivables Based finance profession.

Eligibility

Anyone employed with a company that offers factoring and has a minimum of two year's work experience in the Factoring Industry are eligible to participate. Candidates must also adhere to the CAEF Code of Conduct.

Commitment and Resources

Candidates

Simply complete this application for processing. If approved you will be provided with a web site, user name and password where you can schedule to take the exam at a location near you at a time convenient for you.

All candidates who pass the exam will be designated an IFA Certified Account Executive in Factoring "CAEF". Persons who achieve the certification will be able to promote themselves as a CAEF and are authorized to use the logo for so long as their certification is active.

Continuing education requirements are required to maintain your designation. They can be found at : <https://www.factoring.org/certification>

Examination Administration

The IFA Certification test consists of a 100 multiple-choice question exam and candidates have two hours to complete the exam. The test is administered as a computer-based test and is offered in over 350 testing sites throughout the US and Canada. Testing center locations can be found at: <http://isoqualitytesting.com/centers.aspx>. Each testing center's schedule varies based on availability, so if you have a question about a specific location, contact ISO-Quality Testing at 866-773-1114.

The Only Receivables Based Finance Industry Certification

The IFA through assistance from industry partners worked diligently to produce an exam that distinguishes between candidates who are minimally competent, further promoting and protecting the factoring industry. This CAEF is a best in class designation awarded by the International Factoring Association, the world's largest association comprised of Factoring and Receivables Based Finance Companies.
