International Factoring Association Announces New Preferred Vendors

AVILA BEACH, CA, March 28, 2022- – The International Factoring Association (IFA) has added three new vendors to their preferred vendor program: Wolters Kluwer Lien Solutions, Factorview, and TriumphPay. The new vendors will offer IFA members a special discount available only to IFA member firms. All companies in the vendor program undergo a rigorous screening process before being selected and are subject to ongoing monitoring.

Wolters Kluwer Lien Solutions is the nation's leader in UCC filing and public records search, lien management, debtor due diligence, and life-of-loan risk management solutions. They work in partnership with their clients to streamline the lending cycle, mitigate risk, help ensure compliance, and assist in serving end customers.

Factorview is a web-based factoring program that allows easy access to your data through your PC, Mac, tablet, or smart phone. Factorview is designed for new companies, as well as established factors with employees in numerous locations.

TriumphPay is the only platform that connects brokers, factors, shippers, and carriers, through forward-thinking, frictionless payment solutions. The platform provides each party with the tools they need to increase automation, mitigate fraud, and boost back-office productivity and efficiency.

“We designed the vendor program to help build relationships between factor members and vendors whose products help members achieve their goals,” said Tania Daniel, Executive Director of the International Factoring Association. “These three vendors address some of the most pressing issues of the industry. Their services will help members assess and reduce risk; track and view data in a more useful and secure way; and achieve frictionless transactions that drive cash flow and efficiency.”
