International Factoring Association Names ExamFlow as a Preferred Ally Member

SAN LUIS OBISPO, CA, September 15, 2026 – The International Factoring Association (IFA) today announced that ExamFlow has been admitted to the IFA's Preferred Ally Membership Program. Through this partnership, IFA members will receive special benefits and pricing for ExamFlow, Bicameral's invoice audit and verification platform.

"We are pleased to welcome ExamFlow to our Preferred Ally Membership Program," said Tania Daniel, Executive Director of the International Factoring Association. "ExamFlow can help factors streamline invoice processing, identify potential issues before funding and improve efficiency. We look forward to the value ExamFlow will bring to our members and the factoring industry."

ExamFlow automates the review and verification of invoices and supporting documents. The platform helps factors identify billing discrepancies and document risks while reducing the time required to process invoices.

IFA Ally Membership is open to companies that provide products, services and solutions to factoring companies and contribute to the industry's continued growth and advancement. IFA Preferred Ally Members go beyond traditional Ally Membership by offering discounts or specialized services exclusively to IFA members. Each Preferred Ally Member undergoes a thorough application and screening process before receiving the IFA's endorsement.
