International Factoring Association Welcomes Fund Forward Podcast Co-host Robert Center and NEXGEN Committee Member Madison Majecki

SAN LUIS OBISPO, Calif., Nov. 26, 2024 – The International Factoring Association (IFA) today announced that Robert Center, Senior Relationship Manager at Quasar Capital, has been selected to co-host the NEXGEN Fund Forward podcast along with existing host Chad Eberly, General Manager and Co-founder of Encore Funding.

For nearly a decade, Center has been a trusted advisor to individual clients and small businesses. He excels in recommending high-impact solutions that help small businesses achieve profitability and individual clients reach their goals.

The Fund Forward podcast series is dedicated to the evolving world of factoring. Designed to cater to both newcomers and seasoned professionals in the factoring industry, the podcast is an engaging series for learning, sharing, and discovering the myriad opportunities within the dynamic field of invoice factoring.

Additionally, the IFA announced that Madison Majecki, AVP of Business Support at Triumph, has been named as a NEXGEN Committee member. Majecki brings over a decade of experience in the factoring industry, having held roles including funding processor, customer service representative, and business support manager. In her current role, she focuses on improving efficiency through technology and streamlined processes for Triumph.

The mission of the NEXGEN Committee is to support the IFA's commitment to attract, develop, engage, and retain the next generation of factoring talent.

“The NEXGEN Committee continues to develop and cultivate innovative programs such as the Fund Forward podcast to attract and retain young professionals in the factoring industry,” said IFA Executive Director Tania Daniel. “We welcome Robert and Madison to their new roles and look forward to their work to develop a pipeline of industry leaders.
