International Factoring Association Names NN6, LLC and Coface as Preferred Ally Members

San Luis Obispo, CA, February 18, 2025 – The International Factoring Association (IFA) announced that NN6, LLC, and Coface Services North America, Inc., have been named Preferred Ally Members. IFA Ally Membership is open to companies that deliver a diverse range of products, services, and solutions to factoring companies and contribute to the overall prosperity and advancement of the industry. IFA Preferred Ally Members surpass the typical Ally Member by providing discounts or specialized services exclusively for IFA members. Each Preferred Ally Member undergoes a thorough application and screening process to ensure the organization's integrity before receiving an endorsement from the IFA.

NN6, LLC, offers a full stack SaaS application, "NN6," for the factoring industry. The portfolio management software provides ways to amplify a company's ability to identify problems faster and communicate more effectively while in a transparent workspace.

Coface Services North America, Inc. provides exclusive risk insights to help companies trade smarter globally and gives them the confidence they need to navigate an uncertain and volatile environment by offering a full range of solutions: trade credit insurance, business information, debt collection, and single risk insurance.

"We are pleased to welcome NN6 and Coface to our Preferred Ally Membership Program," said Tania Daniel, Executive Director of the International Factoring Association. "Their dedication to excellence, innovation, and service aligns with our mission to provide value for our members. These are vendors our members can trust to provide quality services, solutions, and discounts."
